

XXVII RNE - XI CIE SPECTROSCOPY

MÁLAGA • JULY 8-10, 2020

Dear sponsor,

On behalf of the Spectroscopy Committee of the Spanish Society of Optics (SEDOPTICA) and the Organizing Committee it is a pleasure to communicate that the next XXVII Spanish National Spectroscopy Meeting (RNE) - XI Iberian Congress on Spectroscopy (CIE) will take place from 7th to 10th of July 2020 in the Industrial Engineering School of the University of Malaga.

As in previous conferences, XXVII RNE – XI CIE has as its primary objective to provide an appropriate forum for discussion that favors the exchange of information among its participants, which is of crucial importance for the advance of the knowledge in the spectroscopy field, both in the fundamental and applied aspects. In this frame, it is of great importance to highlight the value that the latest technological advances in instrumentation has for the scientific community involved in the field, and could be considered a crucial aspect for its development. This conference offers a framework of great interest for the company activities dissemination, as well as a direct exhibition of their products. In other words, it allows the company the introduction of a wide range of possibilities for instrumentation in spectroscopy. Consequently, we would be pleased to count on your support in this conference.

The Organizing Committee considers that this conference offers a unique opportunity for the sponsors and exhibitors. In order to serve the different interests of your company, various levels of sponsorship are offered, with and without exhibition of your products.
